

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. _____

To prohibit the conduct of a first-use nuclear strike absent a declaration of war by Congress.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. MARKEY introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To prohibit the conduct of a first-use nuclear strike absent a declaration of war by Congress.

1        Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2        tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3        SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4        This Act may be cited as the “Restricting First Use
5        of Nuclear Weapons Act of 2017”.

6        SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY.

7        (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8                (1) The Constitution gives Congress the sole 9        power to declare war.

1           (2) The framers of the Constitution understood 2           that the monumental decision to go to war, which 3           can result in massive death and the destruction of 4           civilized society, must be made by the representa-
5           tives of the people and not by a single person.

6           (3) As stated by section 2(c) of the War Powers
7           Resolution (Public Law 93–148; 50 U.S.C. 1541),
8           “the constitutional powers of the President as Com-9           mander-in-Chief to introduce United States Armed 10          Forces into hostilities, or into situations where im-
11          minent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated 12          by the circumstances, are exercised only pursuant to 13          (1) a declaration of war, (2) specific statutory au-14          thorization, or (3) a national emergency created by 15          attack upon the United States, its territories or pos-
16          sessions, or its armed forces”.

17          (4) Nuclear weapons are uniquely powerful 18          weapons that have the capability to instantly kill 19          millions of people, create long-term health and envi-
20          ronmental consequences throughout the world, di-21          rectly undermine global peace, and put the United 22          States at existential risk from retaliatory nuclear 23          strikes.

1           (5) By any definition of war, a first-use nuclear 2           strike from the United States would constitute a 3           major act of war.

4           (6) A first-use nuclear strike conducted absent
5           a declaration of war by Congress would violate the 6           Constitution.

7           (b) DECLARATION OF POLICY.—It is the policy of the 8           United States that no first-use nuclear strike should be 9           conducted absent a declaration of war by Congress.

10 SEC. 3. PROHIBITION ON CONDUCT OF FIRST-USE NU-
11 CLEAR STRIKES.

12           (a) PROHIBITION.—Notwithstanding any other provi-
13           sion of law, the President may not use the Armed Forces
14           of the United States to conduct a first-use nuclear strike 15           unless such strike is conducted pursuant to a declaration 16           of war by Congress that expressly authorizes such strike.

17           (b) FIRST-USE NUCLEAR STRIKE DEFINED.—In this 18           section, the term “first-use nuclear strike” means an at-19           tack using nuclear weapons against an enemy that is con-
20           ducted without the President determining that the enemy 21           has first launched a nuclear strike against the United 22           States or an ally of the United States.
